

VOICES

Autism in Spoken Word

Featuring Janine Booth,
Tom Bowes aka 'Autistic Genius' and Bernadette Louise

An evening of poetry and spoken word including performances by those who are on and support people on the Autism Spectrum.

Unallocated seating in the foyer
Monday
20th February 2017
8pm

Performance Poet JANINE BOOTH describes herself as "a Marxist, trade unionist, socialist-feminist, author, poet, speaker, tutor, former RMT Executive member, supporter of Workers' Liberty, aspie, bi, Peterborough United fan." She has an established catalogue of work dealing with Autism and much more.
www.janinebooth.com

'AUTISTIC GENIUS' Tom Bowes is a public speaker, Autism advocate, writer and vlogger. He runs a Facebook page called Autistic Genius, where he creates videos explaining the different traits of Autism.
www.facebook.com/AutisticGenius1988

BERNADETTE LOUISE is a Mother, Artist, Writer, Fighter. She describes herself as having "a fiery tongue" and writes an "honest sometimes brutal account of parenting and partnering the Autism Spectrum condition". Bernadette has a history of making self-confessional artworks, and has been frequently supported by Arts Council England.
www.BernadetteLouise.com